Education & Classes

After School Arts

Join After School Arts for a whole new year of after-school activities designed to promote a new generation of artists, innovators and problem solvers! Classes begin September 18 with a mixed media exploration of landscapes! Topics change every two weeks. Classes meet Tuesday-Thursday, 4-5:30 pm. Doors open at 3 pm for homework and snacks. Pre-registration is required. For a full schedule of topics visit www.hoytcenter.org. Free to grades 3-6 in Lawrence County.

Creative Play

The Hoyt is pleased to announce the 2018-19 Creative Play schedule for ages 3-7. Creative Play is just what it sounds like – an opportunity to learn through fun and engaging activities. September's changing leaves provide the inspiration for the September 22 workshop designing and building a tree house. The October 27 workshop will featured the Global Cardboard Challenge put together by the Imagination Foundation. For a full schedule of workshops, visit www.hoytcenter.org. Workshops are free but pre-registration is required.

Youth Art Club

Art's Club kicked off it's 2018-19 schedule with a family field trip to the Carnegie Science Center in August! On September 15, we'll celebrate "Dot Day" using pointillism to create paintings! On October 20, we'll take a sweet turn to decorating Sugar Skulls in conjunction in the spirit the "Day of the Dead" and Halloween. For a full schedule of free workshops, visit www.hoytcenter.org. Art's Club is a benefit of youth and/or family memberships.

Lights on After School

The lights will be on and the doors wide open on Thursday, October 25, 5-7 pm for the nationwide Lights On After School celebration. Trick or treat your way through our buildings with fun activities and cool exhibits. This is a great way to find out more about our free After School Arts and Creative Play programs!

Events

The Arts & Crafts of Beer

October 20, 7-11 pm

The Hoyt's annual Brew-fest will celebrate The Arts & Crafts of Beer on Saturday, October 20, 7-11 pm. More than two dozen craft beers will be featured alongside several local breweries and a hearty menu prepared by the Crane Room Bar & Grille. Highlights include a mac'n cheese bar, taco bar, assortment of artisan flatbreads, hot pretzel bar and, of course, the s'mores bar by the bonfire! Ticket go on sale September 15!

Pezzone Opens Music Series this Fall

New Castle native, Bryan Pezzone, will perform the first in a series of three music concerts promoting the wealth of talent that has been – and is still being - produced out of the greater Lawrence County region on October 4, 7 pm. Pezzone has been performing and recording in the Los Angeles area since 1987. His range of classic, contemporary and improvisational styles, has led him to perform with composers and musicians as diverse as Pierre Boulez, John Williams and John Adams and record countless film and television soundtracks. Subsequent concerts will feature The Pittsburgh Cello Quartet on December 4 and the Kaplan Duo on April 4. Tickets are $25 per concert or $60 for a subscription to the series. Seating is limited. Visit www.hoytcenter.org.

Story Book Opera

The Hoyt will be hosting a free performance of A Story Book Opera by the New Castle Lyric Opera on Friday, November 2, 6:30 pm. The performance explores the 'Seasons of Opera' on a young person's level using familiar tunes from TV and Advertisements. The result is not only funny, but packed with audience participation. Great for middle school students. Admission is free.

Artist Member Spotlight

Terry Polonsky

Photography, watercolor & acrylic painting

A Western PA native, Terry is the president of the Random Acts of Artists, the chairman of the Arts Commission of the City of Sharon, and a teaching artist in the Arts in Education Program with Erie Arts & Culture.
